Big Labor Intimidation?

Posted by: Staff in Card Check on Mar 19, 2009

The Trentonian writes about Big Labor's "desperation move" to pass the "insultingly named 'The Employee Free Choice Act'":

The advocates say that card sign-ups are necessary because management intimidation leads employees to vote no in unionization elections. C'mon, now. Employees are intimidated when they cast a secret ballot in an NLRB-monitored election, but they wouldn't be intimidated when, say, approached by three union guys in the parking lot and urged to sign a unionization card?
